A Note from 2018 Chair, Ken Fergeson

As we reflect on 2018, I want to take a brief moment to thank you for your support of Oklahoma Humanities this past year. Whether you read Oklahoma Humanities magazine from the comfort of your home or attended one of our public events like "An Evening with Carl Bernstein," your engagement helped us share humanities content, knowledge, and resources throughout our state. We are grateful for your support.

Our mission is to strengthen communities by helping Oklahomans learn about the human experience, understand new perspectives, and participate knowledgeably in civic life. Thank you for your support of Oklahoma Humanities and for helping us connect our fellow citizens to ideas that change lives and strengthen the common good.

Sincerely,

Ken Fergeson, 2018 Chair

BOARD OF TRUSTEES NOMINATIONS

Oklahoma Humanities is always looking for enthusiastic individuals who are active in their communities and have a passion for the humanities to serve on our volunteer board of twenty-four members. Board members govern our organization; attend OH-sponsored programs; serve on committees; advocate on behalf of the National Endowment for the Humanities, our largest funder; and help identify additional funding sources for our programs. Submit a nomination thru our website at www.okhumanities.org. We'd love to have you join us!

About Oklahoma Humanities

As the state affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities, OH accepts grant applications from Oklahoma nonprofits for humanities programs that may take the form of museum exhibits, film festivals, teacher institutes, oral history projects, or other formats that best serve local communities. OH also administers programs that provide free access to cultural humanities content, including: Oklahoma Humanities magazine; Let's Talk About It, Oklahoma; BrainBox podcast; Curiosity Fest; and Museum on Main Street, a collaboration with the Smithsonian Institution. Visit our website to find an event near you, read archived issues of this magazine, or explore grant and program opportunities. We look forward to hearing from you!
